NHH Hotels & Resorts Announces Completion of Multi-Million Renovation at Doubletree Hotel Atlanta/Roswell-Alpharetta

ATLANTA, Ga. – (September 15, 2009) – NHH Hotels & Resorts, a third party, property-level management company, announces the completion of a one-year, multi-million renovation project at Doubletree Hotel Atlanta/Roswell-Alpharetta, located in historic Roswell, Ga.

“We are extremely pleased with the investment made to improve this hotel because it’s providing guests with greater comfort, convenience and the most current technology,” said Ernie Catanzaro, executive vice president of operations for NHH Hotels & Resorts. “The capital enhancements beautifully complement our exceptional level of service.”

All 172 guestrooms at Doubletree Hotel Atlanta/Roswell-Alpharetta Area feature newly renovated baths with brighter pendant lighting, new designer wallpaper and distinctive tile. Every guestroom now offers a 37-inch flat screen TV with free HBO. Complimentary, high-speed wireless Internet access is now available in all guestrooms and the lobby.

The renovations also included a more expansive entrance, a newly enlarged fitness center featuring new state-of-the-art Precor® equipment, upgraded meeting/function space, and Café Zest restaurant and lounge. Café Zest is a brand new restaurant concept developed by NHH Hotels & Resorts for use in company-managed, branded hotels. The menu at Café Zest features accessibly priced, New American cuisine, with an emphasis on functional, organic ingredients.

The Doubletree Hotel Atlanta/Roswell is the alternative choice for a four star experience on an affordable budget. The hotel is conveniently located between Alpharetta and the Perimeter suburb of Atlanta.
