NHH Hotels & Resorts Announces Completion of $8 Million Renovation at Embassy Suites Pittsburgh-International

PITTSBURGH, Pa. – (September 29, 2009) – NHH Hotels & Resorts, a third party, property-level management company, announces the completion of a one-year, $8 million renovation of Embassy Suites Pittsburgh-International Hotel, the only hotel at Pittsburgh-International Airport featuring two-room suites as a standard.

“We are extremely pleased with the comprehensive renovations made to this impressive hotel, which now offers the utmost comfort, convenience and most current technology,” said Ernie Catanzaro, executive vice president of NHH Hotels & Resorts. “The capital enhancements beautifully complement our consistent and exceptional level of service.”

All 223 suites at Embassy Suites Pittsburgh-International Hotel were entirely redesigned and refurbished. Contemporary, sophisticated guestrooms feature new carpeting, wall coverings and furniture in warm espresso, kiwi and saffron earth tones. Guest bath areas present a spa-like environment with brand new marble showers and completely renovated finishes. The suite layout, which also features new lighting, speakerphones and two 32-inch flat screen TVs, serves as a both a tranquil abode and a business office.

“The transformation of the guestrooms at Embassy Suites Pittsburgh is incredible and has exceeded expectations. The property could very well be a candidate for one of the best hotel renovations of the year,” said Catanzaro.

The renovations also included a new fitness center featuring brand new Precor® equipment, upgraded meeting/function space, upgrades to pool, addition of gift shop, and Café Zest restaurant and lounge. Café Zest is a brand new restaurant concept developed by NHH Hotels & Resorts for use in company-managed, branded hotels. The menu at Café Zest features accessibly priced, New American cuisine, with an emphasis on functional, organic ingredients.
